BAHEP welcomes Young Industries Group

BAY AREA HOUSTON, TEXAS- Young Industries Group, a company customized for a wide range of industrial and business services to satisfy specific needs in all aspects of a project, has joined the Bay Area Houston Economic Partnership (BAHEP) to continue building tailored plans with a goal of economic expansion within the Bay Area.

Bay Area Houston Economic Partnership President, Brian Freedman, expressed excitement stating “We are happy to welcome Young Industries Group to BAHEP. Their wide range of industrial services are a powerful addition to further our mission of economic growth in Bay Area Houston.”

Randy Young, Founder of Young Industries Group, is grateful and optimistic for the new alliance, “The leadership team at BAHEP has welcomed our small business with open arms and has been instrumental in facilitating opportunities for us to meet key business leaders. We look forward to building strong connections with local political, business and community leaders in our region who believe our workforce should have access to more training courses and technology that will enable them to be at the forefront of a new wave of construction through automation.”
