BAHEP welcomes TDECU

BAY AREA HOUSTON, TEXAS – TDECU, a member-owned credit union, has proudly joined the Bay Area Houston Economic Partnership (BAHEP). With 33 locations across the State of Texas, TDECU is committed to providing a full range of financial products and services.

Brian Freedman, President of Bay Area Houston Economic Partnership expressed “We are thrilled to welcome TDECU as our newest member; their commitment to not only serve, but support clients and communities aligns with the BAHEP mission.”

TDECU Marketing President, Travis Perez, shared “TDECU is proud to join the Bay Area Houston Economic Partnership as a new member. As a financial cooperative, we are excited to collaborate with fellow business leaders who are passionate about driving innovation, growth, and prosperity across the region. Together, we can strengthen the economic vitality of Bay Area Houston and support the people and businesses in our community.”

All Things TDECU

With regional offices beyond the Bay Area Houston in Lake Jackson and Sugar Land, Texas, TDECU’s services include checking and savings accounts, loans, mortgages, credit cards, and investment solutions. TDECU serves individual families and members across the State of Texas in multiple industries such as education and healthcare. The credit union is also dedicated to providing support to small businesses and local communities with personalized financial solutions.

TDECU’s mission is to improve lives, and last year their members saved $50.6 million in lower rates and fees. Founded in 1955, when a group of Dow employees came together to provide financial help for the hourly workers, TDECU has grown to meet the needs of the communities they serve, and to bring their passion for service and great value in products to new financially underserved areas over the last 65 years.
