BAHEP welcomes ABM Industries

BAY AREA HOUSTON, TEXAS – The Bay Area Houston Economic Partnership is proud to announce ABM Industries, a performance solutions company, as it's newest member.

President of Bay Area Houston Economic Partnership, Brian Freedman, shared “We are thrilled to welcome ABM Industries to BAHEP. ABM’s presence and expertise will be a valuable asset as we continue creating a thriving business community in the Bay Area Houston region.”

Carl Sherman Jr., Senior Business Development Manager of ABM Industries stated, “We are excited to invest in the continued success and growth of the Bay Area Houston Economic Partnership and its members. With more than a century of expertise, a storied history of innovation, and a client-first approach, we aim to deliver real results that improve the quality of life and drive economic development for the people and institutions we are fortunate to serve.”

All About ABM Industries

ABM Industries is advancing resilient, sustainable, and reliable onsite engineering and infrastructure solutions, from modernizing aging facilities to optimizing energy use and generating new power sources. We work to achieve sustainability goals, enable capital improvements, improve indoor air quality, electrification, and address waste and inefficiency – all while creating a positive impact for communities.

Committed to strengthening cities, counties, public-school districts, and institutions of higher learning, ABM creates smarter spaces, modernizes infrastructure, and transforms facilities, making them more resilient, intelligent, and connected. With a diverse team of over 100,000 specialists across 19 industries, ABM is not just a single-source provider; we are a dedicated partner in our clients' success. By aligning our services with our clients’ goals, we help them achieve the standards that define success in their industry.
