BAHEP welcomes Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP

BAY AREA HOUSTON, TEXAS – The Bay Area Houston Economic Partnership (BAHEP) is proud to welcome Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP, a full-service law firm providing sophisticated legal counsel to businesses, financial institutions, and government contractors across the United States. The firm represents numerous clients in complex transactions, regulatory matters, and high-stakes litigation, with particular strengths in banking, energy, real estate, construction, and government contracts. Specifically, Bradley’s Government Contracts and National Security teams provide support and expertise on bid protests, Contract Disputes Act claims, FAR/DFARS/NFS compliance, International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR), and EAR (Export Administration Regulations) compliance.

Brian Freedman, President of BAHEP, shared “Bradley adds another strong legal perspective to our membership, with capabilities that support both private industry and government partners. Their experience across key sectors and complex legal matters makes them a valuable addition to BAHEP as we continue working to support business growth in the region.”

Steven C. Herrera, Senior Attorney at Bradley, stated, “Bradley is pleased to partner with the Bay Area Houston Economic Partnership as our firm continually seeks out strategic relationships that benefit our government-contractor clients, as well as support the Houston business community. We are happy to join BAHEP in their mission to advance economic growth and innovation in the region.”
